NexaTech Employee Benefits Guide

DOC-HR-004 • Version 2.0 • Owner: Human Resources • Last Updated: 2026-07-22

Eligibility

Full-time employees are eligible for the standard NexaTech benefits package after joining, subject to plan-specific waiting periods and enrollment rules.

Health Coverage

Employees may enroll in the company health insurance plan. Eligible dependents may be added during the enrollment window or after qualifying life events.

Retirement

NexaTech provides access to a retirement savings program. Employee contributions and any company contribution follow the terms of the applicable plan.

Learning Budget

Employees receive an annual professional-development allowance of INR 40,000 for approved courses, certifications, conferences, and technical books.

Equipment

Engineering employees receive a company-managed laptop and required development accessories. Replacement requests are reviewed based on device condition and business need.

Internet Support

Eligible remote employees may claim up to INR 2,000 per month for approved home internet expenses.

Wellness

Employees have access to wellness resources and periodic company wellness programs.

Claims

Benefit claims and reimbursements must be submitted through the employee portal with supporting documentation where required.

Important Note

Benefits may change as providers, plans, and company policies are updated. HR is the authoritative source for current enrollment terms.
